Burdick Custom Homes is the company behind many award-winning homes in the upscale neighborhoods of San Antonio. The firm has a reputation for stellar architectural design, marked by timeless elegance and meticulous attention to detail. Art Burdick, CEO, and founder of the company, is recognized in the industry for being nominated as Best Builder of the Year by the GSABA, of which he is also a lifetime board member and former president. Burdick's reputation as a high-quality builder has undoubtedly helped Burdick Custom Homes rise to the top as the best option for luxury home building in San Antonio.

Under Burdick's leadership, the firm has received multiple Summit Awards for four consecutive years. It also received three of the most coveted awards from the Parade of Homes: the President's Award, People's Choice, and Realtor's Choice. The firm's work is done in a variety of classic homestyles—from ranch style homes to French and Spanish colonial styles.
